Course Creation and Customization

UL's team of learning and development specialists and certified safety professionals can help to maximize your training results by creating new courses, customizing the UL EHS off-the-shelf training, and building other learning materials just for you. Our award-winning team has built a fully customizable online safety training library, so you can change anything you see or hear in any of the hundreds of safety courses.

UL's EHS Learning Solutions team has an unmatched reputation in workplace health and safety training. We've also developed effective, custom-built programs on a wide range of topics, including new hire onboarding, contractor safety training, operating procedure training, equipment and product training, and much more. Every course can be delivered via the learning management system of your choice and accessed anywhere, anytime.

Maximize your training results with:

- New courses on any topic
- Customized UL training
- Performance support materials
- Online learning for legacy classroom topics
- Micro-videos and animations
