NDA leaders try to unblock most frequented lane at Siripuram

- YSR viewpoint developed by the GVMC at Seethakonda now has a different name
- TDP flags find a place in the most restricted tourism project in Rushikonda
- Concrete blocks removed at Tycoon Junction were replaced after a while

A few decisions made by the district officials during the YSRCP's rule irked the locals to a considerable extent.

Following its thumping victory in 2024 polls, the BJP-TDP-JSP leaders got into action to 'undo' them with immediate effect.

After the initial rounds of the vote counting exercise on June 4, yellow-tinted flags of the TDP were seen fluttering at the 'otherwise' restricted zone of the tourism project developed in Rushikonda.

Although the YSRCP did take up a massive development project uphill under the banner of tourism, it drew criticism partly for violating the norms and more for excavating beyond the area permitted by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change spending Rs 500 crore approximately.

The area was highly restricted during the YSRCP government. But on the counting day, the TDP flags found a place uphill.

Near Tycoon junction in Siripuram, the most frequented lane was blocked with concrete dividers, causing a great deal of inconvenience for the commuters as they have to take a long route to reach the other side of the road. For long, Jana Sena Party leaders have been protesting against this in the city as they claimed that the blocking exercise was aimed at paving the way for the real estate project of YSRCP former MP MVV Satyanarayana as a part of a remedial measure for Vastu.

Despite the protests, the road continued to be blocked. However, the next day of the vote counting exercise, JSP leaders removed some of the median blocks at the junction. But their move lasted for a while as the traffic police rearranged the blocks back in its place. The police cautioned that such moves will be taken up after they receive instructions from the higher authorities.

In addition, the YSR viewpoint developed by the GVMC at Seethakonda, Jodugullapalem as part of its beautification works witnessed a new twist. A group of people covered the name with a banner of 'Abdul Kalam viewpoint' even as the counting exercise was in progress.

Following a series of such developments and violence witnessed in several parts of the State, TDP supreme N Chandrababu Naidu appealed to the party activists to stay calm and refrain from violating regulations and indulging in 'uncalled-for' activities

DHARMANA SUFFERS HUMILIATING DEFEAT AT THE HANDS OF TDP DEBUTANT

- Gondu Shankar (TDP) beats the senior YSRCP leader by a margin of over 52,000 votes
- Earlier too in 2014, the then first time contestant Gunda Laxmidevi (TDP) defeated Dharmana Prasada Rao by a margin of 24,131 votes

Laxmi Devi and Gondu Shankar in 2014 and in 2024 elections.

This info is currently circulating on WhatsApp groups and other social media platforms here.

Prasada Rao hails from Mubagam village in Polaki mandal of Narasannapeta Assembly constituency. He contested in elections for the first time from Narasannapeta constituency as Congress nominee in 1985 elections and was defeated by the then senior TDP leader Simma Prabhakar Rao.

Later in 1989 elections, Prasada Rao won as Congress nominee by defeating TDP candidate Simma Prabhakar Rao. Again in 1994 elections, Prasada Rao was defeated in the hands of TDP candidate Baggu Laxmana Rao. But in the 1999 elections, Prasada Rao won against his rival TDP candidate Baggu Laxmana Rao.

By 2004 elections, Prasada Rao was shifted to Srikakulam Assembly constituency after fielding his elder brother Dharmana Krishna Das as Congress candidate for Narasannapeta constituency.

From Srikakulam constituency, Dharmana Prasada Rao was elected twice as Congress candidate in 2004 and in 2009 elections by defeating the TDP candidate and former minister Gunda Appala Surya Narayana. In the two terms, Prasada Rao had served as minister for revenue and also minister for roads and buildings.

However in 2014 elections, Prasada Rao was defeated in the hands of TDP debutant Gunda Laxmidevi by a margin of 24,131 votes.

Again in 2019 elections, he bounced back and defeated TDP's Gunda Laxmi Devi.

But there have been allegations against Prasada Rao that he had encouraged illegal land deals and failed to resolve issues pertaining to the poor and his own community people during the last five years. As a result in 2024 elections, Prasada Rao suffered a humiliating defeat at the hands of his TDP rival Gondu Shankar.

But for the last five years Prasada Rao as MLA and as Minister for revenue allegedly encouraged illegal land deals and other anti poor and anti people issues with his supporters and his own community leaders as a result in 2024 elections Prasada Rao was defeated in an insulting way by the TDP led alliance candidate, Gondu Shankar. In addition to winning, Shankar achieved a huge majority of 52,521 votes.
