

INDIAN RAILWAYS COMMITTED TO MAINTAINING HIGHEST STANDARDS OF CLEANLINESS AND OPERATIONAL DISCIPLINE IN TRAINS

Ahmedabad, Western Railway is committed towards providing a clean travel environment in by ensuring the best service to its esteemed customers. In this sequence, many efforts are being made to maintain cleanliness in trains. For this purpose, arrangements like Clean Train Station and On-Board Housekeeping Services have been provided. Apart from this, garbage collection points have also been created at various places to collect the garbage generated from the pantry car during the journey in long distance trains, so that not only the trains and railway premises remain clean but also the sides of the railway tracks remain clean. These practices lead to a cleaner and hygienic environment which enhances train travel experience.

According to the press release issued by Shri Vineet Abhishek, Chief Public Relations Officer of Western Railway, cleaning of long distance trains is carried out at the stations where the primary maintenance is being undertaken viz. Mumbai Central, Ahmedabad, Ratlam, Bhavnagar, Vadodara, etc. Under this initiative, almost 600 trains are cleaned in Western Railway and all the garbage collected during cleaning of the train is disposed of as per the rules. Over WR, garbage is collected from pantry car at 24 stations where 77600 Kgs. garbage (including Dry and Wet waste) are collected from pantry car and receipt is signed by the concerned manager for final disposal as per rules. WR has On-Board Housekeeping Services in total 175 Trains.

Indian Railways is committed to maintaining the highest standards of hygiene and operational discipline on all trains. Passengers and stakeholders are encouraged to continue reporting any such incidents for immediate redressal, which reaffirms Indian Railways' commitment to ensuring a clean and safe travel environment for all.

Quaker Launches the Findings of 'Bowl of Growth' Program

Ahmedabad, In a bid to inspire and empower the next generation of industry leaders, Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) Gujarat launched its exclusive initiative, 'Breakfast with Champions,' under the CII Gujarat Taskforce on Strategic Initiatives & Engagements. The first episode featured a captivating interaction with Mr. Sanjay Lalbhai, Chairman and Managing Director, Arvind Limited, who shared his profound wisdom and vision for the future of industries in Gujarat. The event, moderated by Mr Sameer Sinha, Chairman, CII Gujarat Taskforce on Strategic Initiatives & Engagements and Founder and Managing Director, Savvy Group, provided a unique platform for industry leaders to gain valuable insights from one of Gujarat's most esteemed business leaders. Mr Sanjay Lalbhai's interaction was a blend of personal anecdotes and professional advice, reflecting his deep-rooted values and principles passed down through generations. Sharing stories from his early days, he fondly recalled the teachings of his grandfather, emphasizing the importance of punctuality and valuing others' time. "It is not a good thing to make people wait. Value other people's time," he quoted his grandfather, highlighting the timeless lesson that has shaped his approach to both life and business. (4)

Quaker Launches the Findings of 'Bowl of Growth' Program

Ahmedabad, The PepsiCo Foundation, in collaboration with PepsiCo R&D and Quaker, has released the 'Building A Healthier Tomorrow' report at an event in Mumbai, highlighting the success of the Quaker 'Bowl of Growth' program. Launched in 2023 with NGO MAMTA HMC, the initiative aims to uplift community health by supporting 1,000 malnourished children aged 3-5 in Mawal & Mulshi Blocks, Pune District, Maharashtra. The program places the mother and child at the heart of its interventions. It has empowered parents and caregivers with knowledge and resources to provide balanced nutrition to children. A key focus of the program is to intervene during the early stages of malnutrition to prevent its progression to severe forms, ensuring a healthier future for children. Aligned with PepsiCo's principle of 'Partnership for Progress', the Quaker 'Bowl of Growth' program strategically partnered with the Government of Maharashtra to ensure the scalability and sustainability of nutrition interventions. Building on the success of the first phase, Quaker will continue the program in Pune, reaching an additional 2,000 children, with further expansion plans for Mumbai, aiming to benefit 4,000 children. ## Respect Parents from the deep of heart

Vinod Chandrashekar Dixit

The Global Day of Parents is observed on the 1st of June every year. The Day honors parents throughout the world. This is a momentous day to recognize the endless efforts of Parents and their sacrifices towards their young ones. This day enhances the importance of being aware of one family's mental and physical health and together working towards the betterment of it. US President Bill Clinton established this day in 1994. It is said that "respect for one's parents is the highest duty of civil life". We celebrate days honouring our parents such as Mother's Day and father's day but do we really focus enough on respecting them? The day aims to stimulate awareness of the importance of parenthood and its role in providing protection and the tools needed for positive development in children. There is no basis for children to disrespect their parents because respecting them is the only way of showing gratitude. Notably, parents are the valid reasons of existence, and we should be courteous, provide for their need and help, as well as living by their expectation on moral grounds. The day pays respect and appreciates parents what they do for their children, their selfless commitment to children, and their lifelong sacrifice towards nurturing this relationship.

Parents are a beacon of a child's life. They lay the foundation for children, and nurture and equip them with the skills that are necessary throughout life. Parents protect their children and make countless selfless sacrifices to ensure their growth. Parents are the most precious gifts anyone can get. However, as not everyone has them, we must consider ourselves lucky if we do. They are the strength and support system of children and help them out always. Our parents love us and sacrifice a lot for our well-being. That means we have an even greater responsibility as a child to listen to our parents, respect them, be disciplined, be grateful for their dedication and hard work, and love them back. It is our duty to obey our parents, that is, to do always what they tell us to do. All that we have is given to us by our parents food, clothing and education. In this world, we can't see God but we have parents. In India, they are referred to as God. Since ancient times we taught to respect parents and elders. Nowadays due to a busy schedule, children are not able to spend their time with their parents. Sometimes, we think our parents cannot understand us and they get in the way of our happiness. This is why many of us have experienced rebelling against our parents at some point especially when we were still adults. Global Day of Parents helps such people to spend a full day with their parents. For the full and harmonious development of their personality, children should grow up in a family environment and in an atmosphere of happiness, love and understanding. ## Difference between convicted felons Hunter Biden and hunted Trump

Hunter Biden, son of the incumbent President of the United States, is now a convicted felon. The jury in a Delaware court has found him guilty on all charges on Tuesday. An ex-President (and possibly the next President too) is also a convicted felon now. The jury in a Manhattan court found Donald Trump guilty of all charges last month. It seems a victory for the US judicial system but the cracks are showing elsewhere.

former US President and frontrunner for the White House this November was found guilty on all 34 counts of his felony, there was unabashed glee in studios and broadsheets, and they were at pains to amplify Trump's characteristic derision of the trial—and even its run-up—that indicated bias were glossed over. But the same US media are still trying to portray Biden Jr not as the pampered son of a powerful family who lives beyond his means but as an American aam admi. That the troubled Biden is somehow a representative of all beleaguered ordinary Americans suffering from addiction. The difference between him and other American addicts, of course, is that he comes from a close-knit family that had the means and influence to deal with his habit but did not. After the verdict, President Biden has been reiterating his faith in the rule of law, never mind the 'shock and awe' tactic of the powerful clan turning up in force for the hearings—armoured vehicles and Secret Service personnel in tow—in sleepy Wilmington. Moreover, the elaborate machinations that preceded the trial made it very clear that the defendant's family did try to prevent the case ever coming to trial, by using levers of the government as well as a plea deal. Procedural delays and framing of lesser charges—tactics familiar to Indians—were attempted to prevent the trial. Only the intervention of the Trump-appointed federal judge in Delaware thwarted the Biden team's plans. His lawyers have appealed against the judge also rejecting.
