DOGS FAIL

DAN'T TAKE SCENT FROM MAXON MILLS HOME.

Ham Thieves Get Too Long Start of Their Pursuers This

Bloodhounds failed to find a trail of the thief that entered the smokeiouse of Will Albert, a farmer residing at Maxon Mills, last night. At 7:30 o'clock last night Deputy Sheriff Gardner with the dogs arrived from Morganfield and Sheriff George Houser and Deputy Sheriff Charles Clark rushed him to the scene of the meat robbery. The dogs sniffed about the meat house, but owing to the fact that the trail was nearly 24 hours cold, and hundreds of people had visited the house yesterday, the dogs were powerless to follow. Mr. Albert was determined to use every effort to locate the thief and every scent of frying ham will be investigated.
