

Owl Lover 2011 Calendar

(Art by Nathan Jurevicius)

My name is Shivani and I am the author of My Owl Barn. I want to thank you for your support on behalf of all 30 artists who made the “Owl Lover 2011 Calendar” project possible. Ever since I started My Owl Barn, I have come across many talented artists and have featured most of them on my blog.

This calendar is the outcome of my desire to work closely with them and to create something great for all the owl lovers! When I contacted them with my idea for this owl-themed calendar, not only did I receive the custom made wonderful owl art work, but also words of encouragement and best wishes which kept me going.

All the beautiful art in this calendar will warm any owl lover’s heart. As beautiful as it is - you can still improve the calendar by customizing it, and picking and choosing the images that you love the most. Yes, that’s right, there are a lot more than 12 images for to choose from, so you can browse through our gallery, and select the ones that you love the most.

So here it is. Get it, enjoy it and share it!
