

FLOOR-PLAN

Scale  $\frac{1}{8}$ " = 1'-0"

Administration Building, Selkirk Shores State Park, New York

Impressive in extent for a log building and notable for the workmanship of the log construction and the broad sweep of the roof. The severity of the concrete base, the trivial boulder masonry of the chimneys, and the thinness of the covering material of the roof are disturbing details.