

FLOOR PLAN

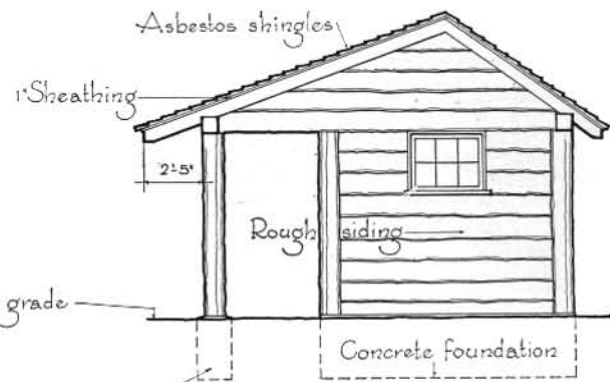

Cabin

Finger Lakes State Parks Commission - - New York

Deriving from the primitive Adirondacks shelter this type of one room cabin with open porch is popular in central New York. The sliding doors are its distinguishing feature. Opened, these relate the cabin intimately to the outdoors.

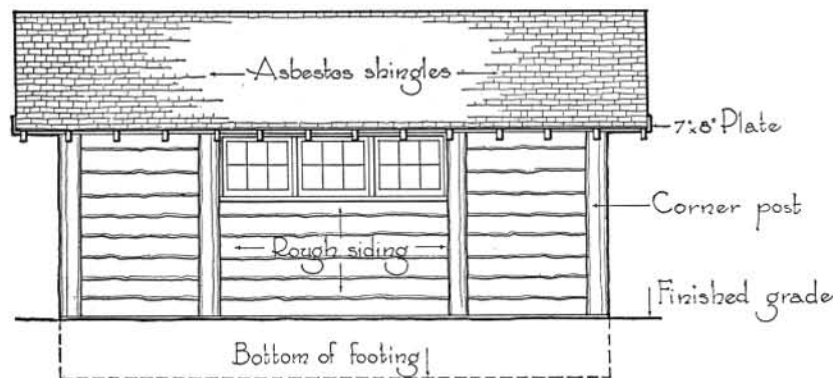

FRONT ELEVATION

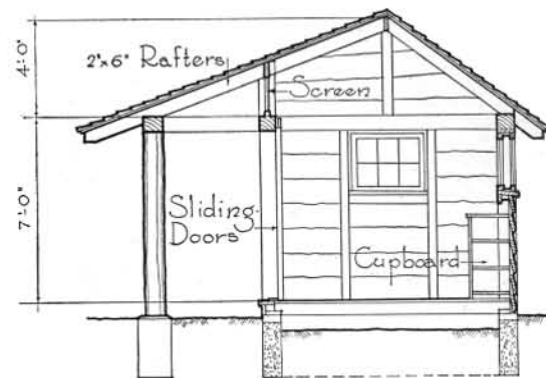

SIDE ELEVATION

All wooden posts anchored to stone

REAR ELEVATION

SECTION

Scale 1/8" = 1'-0"