

MALL OF JUSTICE

Recollections of Meeting our Heroes

Brian Heiler

THE WEBBING BEHIND HIM WAS A SPRAY PAINTED BED SHEET HANGING FROM A ROPE, AND I'M PRETTY SURE THE NECKLACE HAD AN IMAGE OF SPIDEY ON IT AND WAS ONE OF THOSE "MIGHTY MARVEL MEDALLIONS" THAT YOU SAW IN THE BACK OF (MARVEL) COMICS IN THE 1970S. "

Tristan O'Malley

Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, Ontario 1976

"I WAS THRILLED BUT I KNEW RIGHT AWAY THIS WAS NOT BATMAN. BATMAN IS FROM THE COMICS. HE IS A FICTIONAL CHARACTER. AND BESIDES... BATMAN IS ADAM WEST."

Bill McFarland Sears, Philadelphia, PA 1978

"MY GREAT AUNT LORETTA (IN THE PHOTO WITH ME) LET ME PICK THE SPOTS ON MY VISIT. UNIVERSAL STUDIOS WAS ON THE LIST TO HOPEFULLY MEET JAWS BUT MAINLY TO MEET A CYLON, MISSION ACCOMPLISHED! "

Jason Lenzi Universal Studios California 1980

WANTED! YOUR MEMORIES!

How you can get involved:

I'm looking for your photos and your recollections! Even if you've submitted them to the site before, I would likely need higher resolution and I'd want to talk to you.

What am i looking for:

Appearances of costumed characters during the 1970s and 80s, be they from comic books (Batman, the Hulk) , cartoons , toy lines (Masters of the Universe, GI Joe) or movies (Planet of the Apes, Star Wars) , a date and place and a description of how you felt meeting these iconic characters. Did you think they were real?

Does it have to specifically be in a mall?:

HECK NO! Car shows, county fairs, theme parks, grocery stores, heck I'd even accept birthday party shots. It's all fair game.

If You've got a vintage photo and a story drop me a line!
