

Discontinuation of SPI Subsector and Sector indices

Zurich, 25 October 2018

SIX held a market consultation from 30 June to 31 August 2018 on the potential discontinuation of the SPI Subsector and Sector indices. No negative feedback from the investment industry and index users were received and no direct or indirect investments or financial products are known to SIX on the indices in question. Therefore the decision was taken to discontinue the provision of those indices.

SIX will stop the calculation and publication of the indices in question effective 1 February 2019 with the last calculation day on 31 January 2019.

The SPI indices on the levels “Supersector” and “Industry” are not affected and remain unchanged.
