1. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

A. Information You Provide to Us

Certain parts of the Viant Corporate Properties enable visitors to provide information voluntarily. For example, we collect information when you register for a Viant client account, contact client support, request additional information about Viant's products and services, subscribe to our marketing communications, or otherwise contact us. The information we collect may include contact information (such as name, email address, phone number, or postal address), professional information (such as job title and employer), and other information included in your request or communication with us or that you choose to provide.

B. Information We Collect Automatically

We automatically collect certain information about your interactions with the Viant Corporate Properties. For example, we collect information about how you access the Viant Corporate Properties, such as including IP address, device type, mobile device identifier, browser type and version, operating system type and version, and other information about your activity on the Viant Corporate Properties, such as pages you visit, links you click, and the page you visited prior to arriving on the Viant Corporate Properties.

We and our third-party partners may use tracking technologies, such as cookies and pixels to collect information about your interactions with the Viant Corporate Properties.

C. Information We Receive from Other Sources

We may also receive information from third parties, such as contact information of prospective clients from data partners or publicly available sources.

D. Information We Derive

We may derive information or draw inferences about you based on the other information we collect. For example, we may infer your approximate location based on your IP address or that you are interested in certain services we offer based on past purchases by your company.

2. HOW WE USE INFORMATION

We use information we collect under this Website Privacy Policy to:

- Provide, maintain, and improve the Viant Corporate Properties;
- Manage client accounts and provide customer support and similar services;

- Communicate with you about our products and services and provide news and information that we think will interest you (see “Your Choices” below for information about how to opt out of these communications at any time);
- Target advertisements to you on third-party platforms and websites (for more information and instructions about how to opt out, see “Your Choices” below);
- Monitor and analyze trends, usage, and activities in connection with the Viant Corporate Properties and our products and services;
- Detect investigate, and help prevent security incidents and other malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity and help protect the rights and property of Viant and others;
- Operate our business, such as to contact you in connection with billing or similar matters; and

8. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR INDIVIDUALS IN EUROPE

Viant is generally not subject to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) because it does not operate in the European Union (EU) (or the United Kingdom or Switzerland) and does not target its services to individuals in the EU. Additionally, Viant does not transfer personal information outside of the United States or Canada. However, Viant is committed to protecting the privacy of all users and therefore has proactively certified that it adheres to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF) and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, and the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (Swiss-U.S. DPF) as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

Viant only collects and uses personal information only for the purposes for which it was collected and in accordance with the DPF. Viant also takes steps to protect the security of personal information, including using appropriate technical and organizational security measures. Viant has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce that it adheres to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (EU-U.S. DPF Principles) with regard to the processing of personal data received from the European Union in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and from the United Kingdom (and Gibraltar) in reliance on the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF. If there is any conflict between the terms in this privacy policy and the EU-U.S. DPF Principles, the Principles shall govern. To learn more about the Data Privacy Framework (DPF) program, and to view our certification, please visit <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/>.

The Federal Trade Commission has jurisdiction over Viant's compliance with the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF) and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, and the Swiss-U.S. DPF. In compliance with the EU-U.S. DPF and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF, Viant commits to cooperate and comply with the advice of the panel established by the EU data protection authorities (DPAs) and the UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) and the Gibraltar Regulatory Authority (GRA) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) with regard to unresolved complaints concerning our handling of personal data received in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF. An individual has the possibility, under certain conditions, to invoke binding arbitration for complaints regarding DPF compliance not resolved by any of the other DPF mechanisms. More information on the arbitration process can be found on the DPF website here.

9. CHANGES TO OUR POLICY

We will review and update this Website Privacy Policy periodically and will note the date of its most recent version at the “Last Updated” date above. If we make any material changes, we will post the revised Policy on our website and may take additional measures to inform you, such as by sending you an email. We encourage you to review this Policy frequently.
