The following additional provisions apply to the domain names that are registered through the various registries.

1. Registrants acknowledges and agrees that registrations under the .FILM TLD are restricted to those fulfilling the following Eligibility requirements:

- 1.1 To register and renew a .FILM domain name the Registrant must be the beneficiary of the domain name, AND;
- 1.2 satisfy both Criteria A and B, as described in this section; or
- 1.3 - where the domain name is an Exact Match to a film title satisfy Criteria A and C.

1.1.1 Criteria A – Member of Film Association or Body

The registrant must be a member of at least one of the associations, bodies or unions listed in the document entitled 'Associations, Bodies and Unions Eligible for Registration' which may be updated by us from time to time, and which can be found at the following link: <http://nic.film/>

1.1.2 Criteria B – Closely Connected

The Registrant must be closely connected to the domain name. In line with the TLD's mission and purpose, all Registrants must be able to demonstrate a close connection with the domain name being registered. By way of example and for the purposes of guidance only, the domain name may be:

- a name that includes, or is derived from, one or more words of:
 - the Applicant's organisation or personal name; or
 - a good or service that the Applicant provides;
- an event that the Applicant organises; or
- a profession that the Applicant, or its employees, practice.

Where the domain name is the personal name or screen name of a person, such as an actor or actress, such may not be registered without that person's express consent.

1.1.3 Criteria C – Rights Holder of a Film Title

Where the domain name being applied for is an Exact Match of a film title, then the Registrant must be the rights holder of the applied for film title. Such rights may include:

- Screenplay or a screenwriter's rights;
- Production rights; and/or
- Distribution rights.

The Registrant agrees to abide by all .FILM TLD Policies set forth on .FILM TLD's website at: <http://go.film/policies/> (the "Registry Website").
