

Anto RAJKOVAČA

Director

Croatian Data Protection Agency
CROATIA

Born 30 July 1965, married, three children.

Specialist in Criminal Investigation, graduated from the Police College in Zagreb (2000).

From 1988 to 2010 employed in the Ministry of the Interior of the Republic of Croatia as a police officer. He began his professional career as a regular member of the Criminal Police in the Police Station of Split and become Head of the Department for Combating Organized Crime in the General Police Directorate with headquarters in the Ministry of the Interior in Zagreb.

During his professional police career he continually works on his education and personal development, attending many educational programs, actively participating in the work of many professional assemblies and conferences, both in Croatia and abroad, on topics related to organized crime, drug crime and international terrorism.

In 2011 after long police career he continues his professional path in the field of business intelligence and corporate security including the strategic projects related to personal/private protection.

He is a member of the Croatian Association of Security Managers.

He speaks German, English and Russian language.