Yahoo Japan Corporation Announces a Two-for-One Stock Split

In a meeting of the Board of Directors held on February 16, 2005, Yahoo Japan Corporation decided to implement a two-for-one stock split (free share distribution). The details are as follows.

I. Purpose of Stock Split

In order to make it easier for investors to invest in our Company, we implemented a stock split, aiming to reduce the cost of an investment unit and increase the liquidity of our stock.

II. Effective May 20, 2005, common shares will be split two for one as follows.

1. Shares to be split: Common shares of record will be the final list of issued shares for Thursday, March 31, 2005.
2. Method: The shares of shareholders listed or recorded on the final shareholders register and the official shareholders register and of fractional shareholders listed or recorded in the fractional shares register for March 31, 2005, will be split two for one. Fractional shares resulting from the stock split will be listed or recorded in the fractional shares register in one-hundredth-of-a-share fractions.

III. Distribution date: April 1, 2005

IV. Increase in the total number of authorized shares: We are changing our Articles of Incorporation effective May 20, 2005. The number of authorized shares will increase by 15,080,000 shares to 30,160,000 shares.

V. Any other necessary details regarding the stock split will be decided in Board of Directors meetings.

VI. Calculation of exercise price of stock options and subscription rights

As a result of this stock split, the exercise prices for Yahoo Japan's stock options issued under Article 280-19 of the Commercial Code and subscription rights will be calculated as follows after April 1, 2005.
