Unitarian Universalist Association Sunday

Today's Events

Association Sunday

Today, 11:00 am, in the Sanctuary

Welcome to Association Sunday!

Today we are joining thousands of Unitarian Universalists in affirming our common bonds and purposes on the second annual Association Sunday!

Our liberal faith is needed to help heal our wounded world. Now is the time to connect, to pool our resources and Grow Our Faith by more effectively Growing Our Spirit. Funds raised by this Sunday's collection will be distributed by the Unitarian Universalist Association.

Fifty percent of the money raised will be used as grants to congregations, districts, and seminaries to create new programs for lay theological education and spiritual deepening. The other fifty percent of the money will be divided equally between 1. our ministers' association's new CENTER programs for continuing education to promote excellence in ministry, 2. scholarships for promising students preparing for our ministry, and 3. the Diversity in Ministry Team's initiative to support our ministers of color.

Welcome, and let us celebrate!

Coffee Hour

Immediately following the service in the Parish Hall

Gather with Arlington Street Church's congregation in this lively and social environment. To find the Parish Hall, head downstairs at the rear of the sanctuary. All are welcome.

Please stop by today to sign a postcard to be sent to the House Human Rights Subcommittee on the subject of U.S. funding for the United Nations Peacekeeping Mission in Darfur (UNAMID). The postcard urges the subcommittee to provide oversight of the UNAMID mandate to protect women and girls from violence.

Spirit in Practice

An Adult Lifespan Faith Development Course

Starts today, 12:30 PM – 2:00 PM,
in the Stage Right Room

Come join interim assistant minister Dan Kane and religious educator Erick DuPree for this ten workshop adult religious education offering. Spirit in Practice is designed to provide avenues for deepening our spirituality and affirming our spiritual growth. We will reflect, share, and grow together as we explore ways to nurture our connections with the sacred in everyday life.

We will meet on eight consecutive Sundays, beginning today through November 30th. Each week we will experience different spiritual practices and have an opportunity to reflect on that experience. Grab lunch at the sandwich board and check us out. You need not commit to attend all eight sessions although that will make this course more meaningful.

Those who have died, have never, never left.

The dead are not under the earth.

They are in the rustling trees, they are in the groaning woods.

They are in the crying grass. They are in the moaning rocks.

The dead are not under the earth.

Please feel free to bring photographs or other mementos to place on the altar. Children of all ages are invited to wear costumes and take part in a costume procession.

All children are invited to join Dan Kane and our religious educator, Erick DuPree, on the high chancel to light the chalice this morning.
