Range Address: Oak Mountain State Park in Pelham. Next to Luncker Lake
Directions: Directions to the main entrance:            From I-65 get off on exit 246 in Pelham. Get on state park road which is a side road right next to the Interstate on the west side. There is gas station with a KFC in it where you need to turn onto State Park road. This road will wind back under the interstate and then come to a 4-way stop. Take a left and the main entrance will be just ahead. The shoot will be at Luncker lake which is another 7 miles to the back of the park. Stay on the main park road and it will take you straight to it. Drive slow, there is a speed limit. Directions to the back entrance:            From I-65 get off on exit 246 and head east on hwy 119. Stay on hwy 119 for 7-8 miles (rough guess). A short distance past hwy 14(on the left), turn right onto Oak Mountain Lake Rd. When you get to the actual gate, turn left and cross the lakes. You will have to drive across a small spillway which has flowing water. It's not deep. I have been across it in a Honda Accord. NOTE: You will have to pay a park fee at the gate but you will also have full access to the rest of the park. There is golf course, Horseback riding (I think), fishing, swimming, camping, etc.
