We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. Each of us should please our neighbors for their good, to build them up. For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."

Romans 15:1-3

Christian freedom is not _____;
it is full _____ to God and God's ways.

My well-being is _____ with my _____ well-being.

For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of God's truth, so that the promises made to the patriarchs might be confirmed and, moreover, that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy.

Romans 15:8-9

We live out the radical _____ we are called to when we _____ with "the other."

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:13

Reflection Questions:

- Who do you have the most trouble welcoming?
- How can you practice empathy with these people?
