Habakkuk 2:2-20

“[Jeremiah] affirmed that all the satiation was a quick eating of self to death.”

—Walter Brueggemann, The Prophetic Imagination

“That, then, is the claim of [the prophets]—that the public, official ways to life finally cannot deliver. We must await unadministered disruption. The disruptions are unpleasant and unwelcome, but they are the only hope we have in a society hellbent to death.”

—Walter Brueggemann, The Creative Word

“Judgment is never the last word. Judgment is always a word on the way. A clearing of the way for a better word.”

—Brian Walsh, Habakkuk Before Breakfast
