Revelation 3:7-13 Douglas translation

⁷To the messenger of the church in Philadelphia write: This is what the One who is holy, who is genuine, who possesses David's key, who opens what no one can shut as well as shuts what no one can open, says: ⁸I know your works. Behold! I've set before you an open door that no one can shut because you, having little strength, remained obedient to My word and did not reject My name. ⁹Pay attention to what I will bring about for those from the synagogue of Satan, the ones claiming to be Jews but are not. They lie. Behold! I will make them come and fall down before your feet. Then they will realize that I love you. ¹⁰Since you have kept obeying my command regarding perseverance, I will likewise keep you from the hour of testing that is to come upon the whole world to test those who dwell upon the earth. ¹¹I am coming quickly! Cling to what you have, so that no one may snatch your crown. ¹²To the one who prevails, I will make them a pillar in My God's temple, and they will no longer go outside it. I will also write my God's name upon such a one as well as the name of my God's city, which is the new Jerusalem. This city comes down from my God's heaven as well as my new name. ¹³Let the one who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.
