Robotnik Returns!

All was peaceful and quiet on South Island after Sonic the Hedgehog™ crushed the plans of the diabolical Dr. Ivo Robotnik™ for the first time. Far too quiet, in fact, for a hyper young hedgehog who craves action. So Sonic left South Island in search of other adventures.

When he returned, Sonic found no sign of his friends anywhere. Confused, he went back to his digs to think, and found a note waiting for him. It was from Miles (or "Tails," as he is called), a two-tailed fox who is one of Sonic's closest friends:

"Dear Sonic,

"Robotnik is back, and he's captured all the animals on the island! He is holding me in a place called the Crystal Egg. In order to free me, you have to find and bring the six Chaos Emeralds.

"Robotnik made me write this. He says he's waiting for you, and he's created six really nasty robots in order to 'get rid of you once and for all.' I don't know what he has planned, but Sonic, please be careful!

Sincerely, Tails."

There was no time to waste! The letter fluttered to the floor as Sonic dashed off to find the Chaos Emeralds and save his friends.

Get Ready...

After the Sega logo, you'll see a short introduction followed by the Sonic The Hedgehog 2 Title screen. In a few seconds, a short demonstration appears. To start the game, press the Start Button until the introduction to Act 1 appears.

Race for the Rings!

In order for you, as Sonic, to find the six Chaos Emeralds and rescue your friends, you must make your way through seven fantastic Zones, evading dangerous traps and battling Robotnik's latest batch of nasties. Use the left side of the screen to keep track of your status as you go.

Number of Rings

Timer

Chances Remaining

Number of Rings: Rings keep you from being hurt if you are attacked, touch an enemy or get caught in a trap – however, you will lose all your Rings. If you are caught or attacked and you don't have any Rings, you lose one Chance to complete the game.

You receive points for the number of Rings you have at the end of each Round. You can also receive an extra Chance for every 100 Rings you pick up at one time.

Timer: This shows how much time has elapsed since you began the Act. If you don't complete the Act before the timer reads 9:59, you lose a Chance.

Chances Remaining: This shows the number of Chances you have to get through the game.

Special Items

Throughout the game, you'll find Special Items which will be very helpful in getting you through to the final confrontation with Robotnik. Most of the Items are contained in Monitors. To pick up an Item, break open the Monitor with a Super Spin Attack.

Super Ring: You get 10 Rings.

Power Sneakers: Burn up the screen with an extra burst of speed!

Invincibility: You become invincible to attacks and traps for a short period of time. However, you will lose a Chance if you fall to the bottom of the screen or remain underwater for too long.

1-UP: You get an extra Chance.

Chaos Emerald: Search for these in the Zones. Collect all six to rescue Tails and see the real ending!

Bonus Panels

The Bonus Panel appears at the end of every Act. Touch it to set it spinning. When it stops, you'll find out what bonus you've received.

Dr. Robotnik: You get nothing. Sorry!

Ring: You earn 10 Rings.

Sonic: You get an extra Chance!

Tails: You receive a Continue!

Scoring

Each time you complete an Act, this screen updates you on your progress. You'll receive points as follows:

Enemy Robot:	100 points each
Master Robot:	5,000 points each
Silver Sonic:	10,000 points
Dr. Robotnik:	20,000 points

Time Bonus: The less time you spend in each Act, the more points you receive.

Ring Bonus: 100 points for each Ring you possess at the end of the Act.

Zip Through the Zones!

Before you and Sonic can free all his friends, you'll blast through seven dangerous Zones, with three Acts each. At the end of the third Act of each Zone, you'll meet with one of Robotnik's Master Robots. You won't find any Rings in the third Acts, so one wrong move is fatal! After you defeat each Master Robot, attack the Prison Egg to release its captives.

Under Ground Zone

Hop on a runaway railcart for the ride of your life through showers of spikes and over daredevil jumps. Buzz-saw your way through to secret tunnels and hidden Monitors. Sometimes it's hard to get enough momentum for a good ground attack, but get a running start and keep trying!

Sky High Zone

Race over collapsing bridges and grab lots of Rings while you can. Springs bounce you through underground passages, then send you toward the clouds. Grab a hang glider and ride the storm winds over deadly spikes.

Aqua Lake Zone

Pick up speed and skim the surface of the lake, picking up Rings as you go. When you go under, don't go for too long without air, or you'll lose a Chance. Take a deep breath from bubbles that float up from some of the blocks. Or when a big bubble comes your way, use it to float toward the top of the screen.

Green Hills Zone

Race through loops and hidden passageways. Ride moving platforms over pits filled with spikes. Spring high in the air over traps and terrain. Grab those Rings and Items, and keep on the lookout for Robotnik's badniks!

Gimmick Mountain Zone

The inside of this metallic mountain is filled with moving conveyor belts, platforms, and whirling flywheels. Catch a ride on a wheel, and sling yourself along. Timing is very important! Walking Bombs and Burrowbots roam through this Zone, making your travels treacherous.

Scrambled Egg Zone

Shoot through twisting, turning pipes that lead to traps or treasure. Use the D-Button to make turns at the junctions.

It is in this Zone that you come face to face with Robotnik's baddest creation, the Silver Sonic! It has the Super Spin Attack, and a bunch of dirty tricks to do in our hero. But does it have what it takes?

Note: If you have collected five Chaos Emeralds and manage to defeat the Silver Sonic, it will relinquish the sixth Emerald to you. If you have less than five Emeralds, you will receive no further Chaos Emeralds for the rest of the game.

Crystal Egg Zone

Rush through a land of sparkling crystal. Break through crystal blocks to find hidden treasure. Use a floating orb to sling you to higher ground.

Here you'll meet with Robotnik himself, in an arena he has prepared especially for you...

Game Over/Continue

When you lose all of your Chances, the game ends. However, if you picked up any Chaos Emeralds or managed to get a Tails Bonus Panel on one of the Acts, you will have a chance to continue the game.

When the game ends, a countdown screen will appear. Press the Start Button to continue at the beginning of the round you last played. If the countdown runs out, the next game you play will begin at Act 1 of the first Zone.

The game also ends after you defeat Dr. Robotnik in the final Zone. However, you must have the six Chaos Emeralds in order to break Tails out of confinement. Good luck!
