READINGS FOR TODAY

First Reading — Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Psalms — Ps 19

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

Second Reading — 1 Cor 12:12-30

Gospel — Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

MEDITATION FOR TODAY

Saint Luke writes his Gospel so that the reader will “realize the certainty of the teachings” received. That certainty flows from the man in the synagogue who reads the scroll of Isaiah and promises that he will bring glad tidings to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives, give sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free. Only God can work such wonders; that is why rejoicing in the Lord in our midst must be our strength. As the eyes of all those assembled in the synagogue looked intently at Jesus, they became an image of what we must do as members of the body of Christ—unite ourselves to him in faith and love.

Our Mission Statement

In recognition of God’s love and presence in every human being, the members of Saint Stanislaus Parish embrace the challenge to serve God and all His people. In fellowship with one another, we nurture our Catholic Faith through the celebration of the sacraments and reflection on the word of God. As a welcoming and culturally diverse Faith Community, we strive to proclaim and live the good News of Jesus Christ while providing for the spiritual and physical needs of those less fortunate.

Evangelization

January 26, 2025

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

God is the giver of every good thing. We are indeed blessed if we have come to realize that for ourselves. After Jesus' message of fulfillment in Luke 1:14-21, the people in Nazareth, his home town, reject him. They were blind to who Jesus really was. Those people in our lives who have heard the Good News and refuse it, remind me of those people in Jesus' hometown. Perhaps they, like them, can't accept the fact that God can truly bless those who are CLOSE to Him, Today's Psalm 19 sums up perfectly the ways of God for us. Once we come to know that God is all truth, we can't help but turn toward Him for everything. Why fight it? Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

We the Knights of Columbus at St. Stanislaus take special notice to those individuals and families who consistently extend themselves through offering their time and talents for the betterment of our parish. Monthly we pay tribute to them and the activities and ministries that they support. For January 2025 we recognize John and Mary Kathryn Gergely as recipients for the Family of the month award.

John and Mary Kathryn have been members of our parish since 2002. Mary Kathryn has served as a Sacristan, Eucharistic Minister, Ladies Guild member, and as coordinator within both the Hospitality and Social Ministries. John, a long standing member of the Knights of Columbus has also participated as a Sacristan and Eucharistic Minister. Both John and Mary Kathryn are dedicated choir members. The couple have blessed us with their gardening talents by participating in caring for our flower beds for many years. They have served in the collection process at Mass. They are key components in the success of our Polish Festival, where Mary Kathryn serves the delicious Polish delicacies, dressed in traditional Polish costume. John works with the traffic team keeping the flow moving throughout the day. We are blessed to have John and Mary Kathryn here at St. Stanislaus, and so appreciate their commitments to our Church and our Faith.
