Later, the apostle Paul equates Jesus with the commanded Passover
Lamb of Exodus:

“Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: Therefore let us keep the feast...” 1st Corinthians 5:7-8

So then, the Law (and all it's synonyms) describes and reveals the character and attributes of God, as revealed in Christ. It is about Him, inspired by Him and, to be interpreted correctly, must be interpreted by Him through the presence of His very own Holy Spirit abiding within. Without His Spirit, that perfect and Holy Law is weakened and interpreted in such a way that it can be kept by the strength and determination of men.

When I meditate on Psalm 119, my thoughts fly to Jesus, THE Keeper of the Law. Any stray thought that entertains the suggestion that I could possibly please God without Him and the whole chapter becomes a farce, and the peace and joy of the Lord vanish.

Jesus is my portion (v. 57). He is the Lamp unto my feet (v. 105); the unfailing Love of God that comes to me (v. 41). With Him I can say “Oh!
How I love your Law! (v. 97). I am able to boldly say (with Paul):

“The law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death.” Romans 8:2

Without Him I am left to face my legal punishment alone. 🙏

PSALM 119

THE LAW OF THE SPIRIT OF LIFE IN JESUS THE MESSIAH

Psalm 119, the subject of my consideration and meditation for many months, is set apart from its Psalm peers in a number of ways.

To begin with, 119 is not only the longest Psalm but also the longest chapter in the Bible. It is divided into 22 sections of 8 verses each. Every one of the 8 verses in each section begins with the letter of the Hebrew alphabet that corresponds to that letter's position in the alphabet. For example, every verse in the first section begins with the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet called Aleph.

Without exception, each one of the 176 verses in Psalm 119 makes a reference to either God's Law or a synonym of it (His Word, His promise, His decrees, commands, precepts, testimonies (statutes:NIV), etc.

My interest in Psalm 119 is bound up in the person Jesus, who I believe to be THE promised Messiah, and who said:

“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.” Matthew 5:17

One gospel account begins by saying this of Jesus:

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning” John 1:1-2 strengthen me according to Your Word.

- <sup>29</sup> Keep me from deceitful ways;
 be gracious to me through Your law.
- <sup>30</sup> I have chosen the way of truth;
 I have set my heart upon Your laws.
