

HISC Feva duo win RS Feva Spring Championships

The HISC duo of Mark Jenkins Jauma and Alex Sydenham sailing RS Feva 4545 "Rats on Fire" had a resounding win at the RS Feva Spring Championships this weekend in almost perfect conditions in the waters of the Western Solent and hosted by Royal Lymington YC. Race Officer, Peter Saxton, got the proceeding underway in just over 12 knots of building wind and kept to the schedule with the 3 races throughout the day.

The team scored 3 bullets on day one, setting themselves up well for the second day of racing on Sunday. Mark and Alex then scored their 4th bullet in R4, followed by their discard, a 5th in R5 and a 3rd in the final race, securing them with the overall Championship win.

