

Online Saver

Key Information

Online Saver is provided by Bank of Ireland UK

This document contains important information. You should read it carefully and we recommend you either save or print it in case you need it in the future.

Online Saver at-a-glance

- ✓ Start saving with just £1 – up to £2 million
- ✓ Unlimited free withdrawals
- ✓ Manage your account online 24/7
- ✓ A choice of monthly or annual interest
- ✓ A variable interest rate with a fixed interest bonus for 12 months from account opening

Applying for an Online Saver

To apply you must:

- Be a UK resident, resident in the UK for tax purposes and aged 18 or over. This does not include the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. The account is not open to trustees, charities, clubs, associations, companies, limited liability partnerships, partnerships nor may it be used for business purposes
- Provide the account number and sort code of a UK Bank or Building Society current account in your name(s). This account will be your linked account
- Be able to save at least £1
- Have a valid email address

You'll find our simple online application typically takes less than 15 minutes to complete. Most accounts are opened instantly and we'll let you know your new account number and sort code at the end of the application. If we can't open your account instantly, we'll tell you what you need to do to open your account.

After you've applied

Shortly after you apply, you'll receive an email from us letting you know your account is open or what you need to do to open it. Once your account is opened you'll receive the following items, separately, in the post:

- 1 Your 6 digit security number – if you didn't set it when you applied, as you'll need this to log in
- 2 Confirmation of your account number, deposit and User ID

The first item should arrive within 4 to 5 business days. The second two items can take up to 10 business days.

If you change your mind, you have 14 days from the day you receive notification of your account being opened to call us on 0800 169 7500* and cancel. If you do this, we'll help you switch to another of our accounts or we will give you all your money back with any interest it has earned.

Logging in

To log in visit postoffice.co.uk and just:

- Click on 'Log in', at the top of the screen
- Select 'Savings' from the list
- You'll need your User ID and 6 digit security number to log in

The first time you log in you'll need to read and agree to our Internet Banking Terms and Conditions.

Once you've logged in you can change your 6 digit security number to something more memorable:

- Select 'Savings Account Management'
- Then 'Change Security Number'

When changing your PIN please make it memorable to you but do not make it easy to guess. Don't use your date of birth, the same numbers, e.g. 111111 or a sequence of numbers, e.g. 123456.

Making deposits

You can make the most of your Online Saver by adding more money to the account. You can make deposits in a number of ways:

- ✓ One electronic payment from your linked account – firstly telephone the bank or building society that provide your linked account, or log into their online banking service. Then simply provide your Post Office Online Saver account number and sort code (we'll send this to you once your account is open) together with the amount you'd like to deposit into your Online Saver.

Your bank or building society would normally send this to your Online Saver account by Faster Payments.

✓ Set up a standing order from your linked account. Again, by using your linked account's online banking or telephone service, you can set up a standing order that will send regular deposits from your linked account to your Online Saver account.

✓ By internal transfer from an eligible Post Office savings account. Log into the online servicing site at www.postoffice.co.uk using your username, date of birth and 6 Digit Security Numer (6DSN) to make a transfer to and from any of your eligible Post Office savings accounts, subject to the terms and conditions of the accounts.

Making withdrawals

It's easy to make a withdrawal from your Online Saver:

- Log in to your account
- Select 'Transfer Money Out'
- Follow the simple on-screen instructions

Your money will be paid to your linked Account – withdrawals normally take 1 business day.

For security purposes, you won't be able to make withdrawals for the first 8 calendar days from the date your account is opened.

Changing your linked Account

It's very simple:

- Log in to your account
- Select 'linked Account'
- Choose 'Change linked Account'

Please bear in mind the change may take at least 1 business day to update, and you may not be able to make online transactions during this time.

Statements and tax certificates

You'll get an eStatement quarterly (if you make a deposit or withdrawal in that quarter). We'll email you when this is available to view.

Interest

When you first apply you can choose whether your interest is paid monthly or annually:

- Annual interest is paid between the 20th and 25th March each year
- Monthly on the first Business Day of each month

You can't change when your interest is paid once your account has been opened.

We calculate interest on a daily basis on the total balance in your Account at the end of the day at the relevant gross rate (subject to your meeting our minimum balance criteria).

Tax

Your new Online Saver pays gross interest.

Telephone support

Your Online Saver can only be managed online. But we do have a helpdesk you can call on 0800 169 7500* if you get stuck.

Forgotten your 6 Digit Security Number or User ID?

Just call us on 0800 169 7500* and we'll post them to you – please allow up to 4 business days for them to arrive.

Closing your account

If you would like to close your account, you can do so either Online or by writing to us at Post Office Savings, PO Box 87, Armagh, BT61 0BN.

When we receive your closure request we'll return your full balance, together with any interest, to your linked account. If you choose to close your account please save or print any eStatements beforehand.

In the event of death

To tell us an account holder has died:

- call 0800 169 7500*
- visit postoffice.co.uk (search for "bereavement")
- write to us at PO Box 87, Armagh BT61 0BN.

¹Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

² General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers a maximum of £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank, building society or credit union operates under different trading names. Bank of Ireland (UK) plc also trades under Bank of Ireland UK, Post Office and AA Savings. This means that all eligible deposits with one or more of these trading names are in total covered up to £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as “temporary high balances” are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- a) certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- b) a death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- c) the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>

³ Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

⁴ Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor, Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU. Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31st December 2018; within 15 working days from 1st January 2019 until 31st December 2020; within 10 working days from 1st January 2021 to 31st December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

Exclusions List

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

- 1 The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, building society or credit union.
- 2 The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.
- 3 It is a deposit made by a depositor which is one of the following:
 - credit institution
 - financial institution
 - investment firm
 - insurance undertaking
 - reinsurance undertaking
 - collective investment undertaking
 - pension or retirement fund¹
 - public authority, other than a small local authority.
- 4 It is a deposit of a credit union to which the credit union itself is entitled.
- 5 It is a deposit which can only be proven by a financial instrument² unless it is a savings product which is evidenced by a certificate of deposit made out to a named person and which existed in the UK, Gibraltar or a Member State of the EU (on 2 July 2014).
- 6 It is a deposit of a collective investment scheme which qualifies as a small company³.
- 7 It is a deposit of an overseas financial services institution which qualifies as a small company⁴.
- 8 It is a deposit of certain regulated firms (investment firms, insurance undertakings and reinsurance undertakings) which qualify as a small business or a small company⁵ – refer to the FSCS for further information on this category.
- 9 It is not held by an establishment of a bank, building society or credit union in the UK or, in the case of a bank or building society incorporated in the UK, it is not held by an establishment in Gibraltar.

For further information about exclusions, refer to the FSCS website at www.fscs.org.uk ¹Deposits by personal pension schemes, stakeholder pension schemes and occupational pension schemes of micro, small and medium sized enterprises are not excluded.

²As listed in Part I of Schedule 2 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, read with Part 2 of that Schedule.

³Under the Companies Act 1985 or Companies Act 2006.

12. Deactivated accounts (variable rate products)
13. The small print
14. Enquiries and complaints

1. Who we are and contacting us

We want you to know that your money is kept safe and secure, and that means knowing a bit more about who we are and how we operate.

- Your Post Office Savings Account is provided by Bank of Ireland (UK) plc.
- You can find out more detail about Bank of Ireland (UK) plc. by visiting www.bankofirelanduk.com
- You can find out more about Post Office at www.postoffice.co.uk

2. The importance of these Terms & Conditions

Terms and conditions are never the most exciting of reads, but they are important as they set out our responsibilities to you and your responsibilities to us.

We recommend that you carefully read through these general savings terms and conditions, the summary box, the transaction information box and the key product information document relating to your savings account, as all of these documents together form your agreement.

Where there are differences between the documents, the key product information document should be relied upon. This agreement becomes binding when your account is opened.

3. About your linked account

When you open or hold a savings account with us, you'll need to have a UK bank or building society current account linked to it. This is known as your linked account.

Your savings account must be linked to a current account

Sole savings accounts – the linked account must be in your name only.

Joint savings accounts – the linked account can be a current account in the first applicant's name only. Or, it can be a joint current account, as long as the first applicant is also named on the joint current account.

You can change the linked account by logging into the online servicing site or by contacting the customer service centre. The change may take at least 1 business day to update, and you may not be able to make online transactions during this time. If you change or close this current account and don't tell us, it may delay or prevent your transaction from going through. We're not responsible for any loss if that happens.

4. Opening your new savings account

It's important that we get this right for you, so we'll only open and activate an account for you when:

- we've received a fully completed application from you; and
- we've received at least the minimum amount of cleared funds required to open the account; and
- we've confirmed the identity and address of all account holders – if we can't do this electronically, we may ask for further evidence; and
- you've provided details of a UK bank or building society account in your name(s), and it's been linked to your savings account.

If we're unable to open and activate an account for you, we'll make sure that if you've made a deposit, it's returned to you within 28 calendar days of that decision, without any interest. We'll provide you with confirmation of the deposit and the date of account opening. The rates on offer can change at any time.

For fixed term accounts, the rate you receive applies to the term you select and what's on offer when we receive your application.

If you change your mind on any of our accounts, you'll need to contact us within 14 days of your account being opened. We'll help you switch to another one of our savings accounts free of charge or, if you'd prefer return your funds with any interest they've earned.

Who can open and hold a savings account with us?

The account is only available to individuals who are resident in the United Kingdom and who are the beneficial owners of the funds. This means that the money in the account must belong to the account holders. The account is not open to trustees, charities, clubs, associations, companies or other business entities.

The account may be held in either a sole name or in joint names. Where an account is held in joint names, and the applicants hold different addresses, the first named applicant's address will be registered on the account. For joint accounts, you're both liable, individually and together under your agreement, with each of you being equally entitled to all the funds in the account. We'll accept instructions from either of you.

However, if we believe there is a dispute between you regarding the ownership of the funds in your account, we may freeze your account. This means, you won't be able to make any withdrawals or deposits until we receive evidence that satisfies us as to the ownership of the funds, or both of you confirm in writing that the dispute has been resolved.

5. Keeping your account secure

To help protect your account and prevent fraud, it's essential that you follow these security safeguards:

- commit your security credentials to memory and destroy/delete the notification immediately; and
- don't write them down, print or record them; and take steps to keep them secret at all times; and
- never allow anyone else to use them, unless they're acting on your behalf as your attorney or as an authorised third party. Please refer to the "Operating your account" section below for further information; and
- monitor your account on a regular basis for unexpected transactions; and
- keep receipts and statements safe and dispose of them securely (for example by shredding them); and
- never respond to communications asking for your security information; and
- make sure the antivirus, anti-spyware and other security processes are up to date on your devices.

If you know or suspect that someone else knows your security credentials, or you notice an unexpected transaction, telephone the customer service centre immediately. Please note that calls may be recorded.

If we find that you have acted fraudulently in relation to your account, you'll be liable for all losses. If you act without reasonable care and losses are caused, you may be liable for them. We may decide that you've not acted with reasonable care if you fail to follow the security safeguards set out above, or elsewhere in your agreement.

6. Operating your account

It's really important that your contact details and linked account are correct and kept up-to-date. Your contact details must include a secure email address, correspondence address (where you can receive mail securely) and phone number.

If you change any of your contact details or the current account that you use as your linked account, you must tell us as soon as possible, either, by logging into the online servicing site and amending them there, or in writing.

Making deposits and withdrawals

Making deposits and withdrawals

- all deposits into your account must be in pounds (£) sterling;
- we don't accept direct wage, salary, pension or benefit payments of any kind into your account;
- we don't accept deposit payments from a business account;
- any deposit received which increases the account balance to more than the maximum permitted balance (as stated in your account's key product information document) may be returned to you;
- once the savings account is opened, where subsequent deposits are permitted, they must come from your linked account, unless it's an internal transfer from a Post Office savings account or a cash deposit made in branch, where this is allowed. Please refer to your account's key product information document for further deposit information about your account;
- when making your opening or subsequent payments by cheque, (where permitted by your product's key product information document), they must be crossed 'account payee' and made payable to your full name(s), (e.g. John Smith or Mr Tim and Mrs Amanda Jones); and have your name(s) and registered address written clearly on the back. On receipt, we'll immediately bank it, and put a hold on your deposit until we have completed all the necessary checks.

You must have enough cleared funds in your account to make a withdrawal.

Your account's key product information document and transaction information box provide specific details about how deposits and withdrawals are made on your account, and the time they take to be processed.

Allowing someone else to access or manage your account

You must not give or share any of your security credentials with anyone else unless they are acting on your behalf, either as your attorney or, as an authorised third party under a third party mandate registered on your account.

If you wish to register an attorney on your account, you'll need to provide us with an Enduring Power of Attorney or Property and Financial Affairs Lasting Power of Attorney which is registered with the Court of Protection. A person registered on your account as your attorney is able to operate your account on your behalf.

If you don't have an attorney, but you wish to register authority for a third party to be able to act on your behalf, you should complete a third party mandate which is available online at www.postoffice.co.uk or by calling the customer service centre. The third party mandate also explains what a third party can and cannot do on your behalf, as they don't have the same legal rights as an attorney.

There may be other circumstances where we'll allow others to act on your behalf, for example in a crisis situation such as an accident or illness, where we wouldn't reasonably expect you to contact us directly. In this situation, your representative must contact us in advance of acting on your behalf and we'll agree any authority they may have on a case by case basis. We'll advise at the time of asking what documentation we require.

7. Account information and statements

For variable rate accounts, we'll make a statement available at least once a year. This will show the amounts of any deposits and withdrawals, the amount of any interest, and the charges deducted throughout the previous year. You can access statements by logging in to your account through the online servicing site at www.postoffice.co.uk. If you cannot access the website, you can call the customer service centre and request a statement.

Please note that the balance may not be completely up to date. For example, it may not include some transactions that are being processed, or interest you have earned on your account that has not yet been paid.

8. Earning interest on your account

You can find your interest rate, including any introductory, bonus or tiers, by logging into the online servicing site at www.postoffice.co.uk or by calling the customer service centre.

Interest is calculated and paid up to the close of business the day before a withdrawal or account closure. Interest is paid gross without the deduction of tax. We don't require account holders to tell us they are non-tax payer(s).

We won't pay interest on your account for any day, or part of a day, where the cleared balance falls below the minimum permitted balance on your account. If you transfer funds between your accounts on a non-business day (or outside the cut-off time of a business day), interest adjustments will take effect from the next business day.

The minimum permitted balance; further information about how and when your interest is calculated and paid on your account; and details of the cut-off times, are all provided in your account's key product information document and transaction information box.

Please note, if your account allows you to choose where and how often your interest is paid, this can't be changed after you've opened the account, unless it is stated otherwise in your account's key product information document.

9. Charges we may make to your account

When you open an account, you agree to pay our reasonable charges for servicing your account. This would include a £5 charge for providing, for example, a balance certificate, duplicate tax certificate or duplicate (copy) statement. These charges may vary as set out in the changes to your account section, below. We may deduct our charges from your account. But we'll let you know in advance of any charge that you'll have to pay.

10. Changes to your account

We can make changes to the variable interest rate, the terms of your agreement and/or our charges, but only in the following situations:

Reason for the change	What we can change
	Variable interest rates	Changes to your agreement	Charges payable to us if we need to meet any regulatory requirements, guidance, code of practice, decision or recommendation of any court, ombudsman or regulator, or any change in the law; or	✓	✓	✓ if the Bank of England Base Rate changes, or we have good reason to believe it will; or	✓ to reflect any changes in Bank of Ireland UK's costs of providing funds (for example, caused by a change in market interest rates); or	✓	✓	✓
our method of doing business changes, including the introduction of new technology or the advancement or change in our use of technology; or	✓	✓ to reflect any change in the costs of providing your account, or if similar accounts change or are reasonably expected to change; or	✓	✓ for any other valid reason not set out in the agreement, if it is reasonable for us to pass on the change to you; or	✓	✓	✓ to make them easier to understand, fairer or to correct a mistake; or		✓	✓ to improve our service to you or make it more efficient or cost-effective.		✓	✓

The amount of advance notice we'll give you for the changes

Type of change	The amount of advance notice provided, when the change is:
	To your advantage	To your disadvantage
for interest rate changes	at time of change or after	a minimum of 14 days in advance (plus your account's notice period if it has one)*
changes to your agreement (including charges)		2 months in advance (plus your account's notice period if it has one)*

We won't normally give notice of an interest rate change, if your account balance is below £100.

*If applicable, your notice period will be set out in your key product information document.

Communicating changes to you

When telling you about a change, we'll use any combination of the following to do so: placing notices on our website or within Post Office branches; or contacting you by post, email, text message, secure message functionality or any other appropriate method of communication. Where the change being made is a material change to your disadvantage, we'll notify you personally in advance.

During the advance notice period, if you choose to close your account as a result of a change that is to your disadvantage, you can do so without penalty (including any breakage charge), except for any charges that may have already accrued on your account. If we don't hear from you by the date we tell you, we'll assume you're happy with the change.

New payment services or features (including security or digital features) won't be treated as a change and may be applied immediately and without notifying you. An accidental error or omission in telling you about a change to your agreement, does not invalidate the change.

11. Closing your account

For easy access accounts, you may close the account at any time. You can do this by logging on to the online servicing site at www.postoffice.co.uk.

We'll only allow you to close a fixed term account during its fixed term under exceptional circumstances. By exceptional circumstances, we mean an event outside your control, and one that you would not have reasonably foreseen when you opened the fixed term account. For example, a house purchase would not normally be classed as an exceptional circumstance.

Any account closure we allow during the term or outside of any notice period may be subject to a breakage charge. The way the breakage charge is calculated will be fully explained to you at the time of your request, and could mean that you get back less than you originally deposited.

We may close your account by giving you at least 30 days' notice if:

- you're no longer a resident in the UK or no longer the beneficial owner of the account funds; or
- your account falls below its minimum permitted balance, and/or hasn't been used in the last 12 months; or
- you have breached any terms of the agreement; or
- continuing your account would cause us to breach the requirements of any relevant judicial, regulatory or governmental body or would cause us significant difficulty or cost in meeting those requirements; or
- we're required to do so by law, court order or other regulations; or
- it's no longer economical for us to provide your account and / or (where it is practical to do so) we offer you a similar account either with us or with another bank or building society; or
- you share, or allow someone else to use, your security credentials, unless they are acting as your attorney or authorised third party and this is registered on your account; or
- you don't provide a suitable linked account and / or email address.

We may extend the 30 days' notice period, if we deem it appropriate to do so.

We may close your account immediately (or not open an account for you) if:

- you deliberately provide inaccurate or misleading information to us; or
- we can't confirm your identity; or
- the security of your account has been compromised; or
- we suspect fraud or other criminal or unlawful activity; or
- you're in material or persistent breach of your agreement; or

- your account is being used for a purpose or business with which we do not wish to be associated; or
- we're required to do so by law, court order or other regulations; or
- you've acted without reasonable care in conducting any business with us.

Death of an account holder

Where a sole account holder dies, their representative must notify us. We'll then advise what documentation is required to close the account.

For a joint account, where one of the account holders dies, the surviving account holder must notify us. Where both account holders die, the representative(s) of the account holders' estate(s) must notify us. In both cases, we'll advise what documentation is required to close the account (where applicable).

If it is agreed by the relevant parties, we may allow a joint account to continue in the name of the surviving account holder, or in the names of the deceased and the surviving account holder.

We will not apply a breakage charge on any of our accounts, under these circumstances.

Maturity and bonus expiry

For fixed term accounts, the fixed term will begin when the account is opened and mature at the end of your selected term.

We'll contact you before your fixed term account matures or your bonus expires (if your account has one), to explain what will happen at maturity or bonus expiry. We may also offer you the opportunity to reinvest in a new account and/or deposit additional funds.

12. Deactivated accounts (variable rate products)

If you don't transact on your account for three years, or if the balance falls below the minimum permitted balance, then we may deactivate your account. This means you'll no longer be able to make transactions on your account. We'll let you know in advance if this is the case, and tell you how to prevent it.

If you don't respond in the timescales we tell you, your account may be deactivated and we may also stop providing account related information.

You can reactivate your account by contacting us. As part of the reactivation process, we may have to undertake an identity check with a credit reference agency, but this will not impact your credit rating. Even when deactivated, the account will always belong to you and the balance will continue to earn interest at the applicable rate.

13. The small print

If any part of the agreement is found to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable for any reason, that part will be separated from the rest, which will continue to apply. If we choose to not enforce our rights or decide to give you more time, it doesn't stop us from enforcing them at a later date.

The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 doesn't apply to this agreement. This means that third parties can't benefit from or enforce the terms and conditions.

You agree that the only courts to have jurisdiction over any dispute relating to your account or its operation will be: (i) the courts of Scotland if you live in Scotland, (ii) the courts of Northern Ireland if you live in Northern Ireland, (iii) or the courts of England or Wales if you live anywhere else, at the time proceedings are commenced.

Our agreement with you is subject to the law applicable in that part of the United Kingdom in which you live. The agreement is in English and all communications issued under, or in connection with, the agreement will be in English.

We may transfer any or all of our rights and/or obligations under the agreement to any other business or person, as long as they continue to perform the obligations under the agreement. We may do this without telling you, but your legal rights won't be affected and your obligations won't be increased as a result. You may not transfer any of your rights or obligations (in whole or in part) under your agreement.

Nothing in these terms and conditions allows you to go overdrawn. If your account does become overdrawn, we'll take all reasonable steps to recover the funds and any costs incurred in doing so, from you. Unless, becoming overdrawn is due to an error on our part or an unauthorised transaction (see below).

Restrictions on the use of the account

Without giving prior notice, we may refuse to accept or process any transaction; or suspend, restrict or terminate your, or any account holder's right to use the account if:

- we reasonably suspect fraud or any other potentially criminal activity, or that the account is being used to facilitate activities which we wouldn't want to be associated with; or
- we need to comply with any legal or regulatory obligation; or
- we have any other justifiable reason for doing so.

If we take any of these steps, we may contact you (as long as we're not prohibited from doing so) and we'll be entitled to take any reasonable steps to carry them out.

Errors

Sometimes mistakes happen, and if it's our fault, we're really sorry.

It's important you notify us immediately if you notice an error has been made on your account, so we can resolve it as soon as possible. If we become aware that we, or any other party, have deposited or withdrawn an amount from your account in error, you agree that we may make the necessary correction, without having to seek your approval. Where funds are taken from your account in error, our liability to you is limited to the equivalent amount, unless otherwise stated.

If you use funds that have been incorrectly deposited into your account, we may take steps to recover the funds from you. If you don't return the funds when asked to, we may take them directly from your account along with any reasonable costs that we incur.

Unauthorised transactions

If you become aware of a transaction on your account that hasn't been executed correctly, or wasn't authorised by you, you must notify us without undue delay by calling the customer service centre. You may not be entitled to a refund from us, or other forms of redress, if you don't notify us promptly. If you notify us more than 13 months after the transaction, you won't be entitled to any form of refund or redress.

In order to assist with our enquiries, we may ask you for further information; your query to be put in writing; or that you cooperate with the police or other enforcement agencies.

If the transaction was incorrectly executed by us, we'll refund the full amount. If the transaction was not authorised by you, we'll also refund the full amount, unless you have acted fraudulently or failed to protect the security of your account. For example, you don't tell us promptly that your security credentials or card (where applicable) are lost or stolen

If you've failed to protect the security of your account or acted fraudulently, you may be liable for the unauthorised transaction and for any associated losses or costs we've incurred.

If we make a refund and then after further investigation, discover that you're not entitled to that refund, we can claim the refund back from you along with any fees, charges or expenses incurred. This can be directly from your account or by taking any reasonable steps, including legal proceedings.

Our liability

We are only liable for losses you incur in relation to your account, where we (or our agents) have made an error, or have not done something we should have done, under the agreement. Except where:

- it's due to circumstances beyond our reasonable control (for example a civil disturbance, strike or industrial action), or external environmental factors (for example a pandemic); or
- we're prevented from providing banking or payment services due to circumstances beyond our reasonable control (for example, acts of terrorism, failure of power supplies or third party systems); or
- your instructions were not clear; or the information you provided was incorrect or incomplete; or
- you failed to keep your contact or linked account information up to date.

In corresponding with us, you accept that post, online servicing, email or any other form of communication may be intercepted and we're not liable for any losses suffered by you, as long as we've taken reasonable security precautions.

You also accept that occasionally our services may be interrupted due to planned maintenance or circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

There is nothing in the agreement that is meant to limit or exclude your legal or consumer rights.

Legal action against you and claims on your account

If we receive a claim on your account, for example a court order or someone taking legal action to recover funds they believe belong to them, we may:

- stop withdrawals and deposits on your account until the matter is resolved; or
- send the funds to the person we believe is legally entitled to them, or transfer the funds to your linked account; or
- continue to rely on the current records we hold about you; or
- apply for a court order; or
- take any action we feel is necessary to protect us.

If we've acted reasonably, we'll not be liable to you for taking any of these steps.

You'll be responsible for any losses, costs, or expenses we have as a result of any dispute or legal action with someone else involving your account.

14. Enquiries and complaints

All enquiries with regard to your account should be directed to our customer service centre.

If you have a complaint, we want to know, so we can try to resolve it for you. In the first instance you should contact the customer service centre, by telephone or in writing, where you can also request full details of our complaints procedure.

If you have made a complaint but are still not satisfied with the response, the Financial Ombudsman Service may be of assistance and they can be contacted at The Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, London E14 9SR, on 0800 0234 567 or by email at complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

Thank you for taking the time to read these general savings terms and conditions. We recommend that you also read your account's key product information document, transaction information box and summary box, as all these documents together form your agreement.

Online Saver Key Product Information Document

How to get the most from your online savings account

Please retain for future reference.

This key product information document forms an essential part of your agreement, and must be read in conjunction with the general savings terms and conditions document, the Online Saver summary box and transaction information box, as all these documents together form your agreement.

Account holders

The account may be held either in a sole name or in joint names with a maximum of two account holders. Account holders must be 18 or over. You may not open more than one account in your sole name and one account jointly in your name and that of someone else.

Deposits

The minimum deposit required to open an Online Saver account and the minimum permitted balance (excluding interest) is £1.

The maximum permitted balance (excluding interest) is £2,000,000. If you don't fund your account within 30 days of account opening, we will assume you no longer require the account and automatically close it.

You can make opening and subsequent deposits by:

- a. an electronic payment – only from your linked account. Electronic payments will not be accepted from any third party account, including any other current account in your name; or
- b. a transfer from an eligible Post Office savings account in your name(s), subject to the terms and conditions of that account.

Subsequent deposits must be at least £1.

Interest

This account pays a variable interest rate. Interest is calculated on the closing balance on your account each day, and automatically paid into your savings account either annually in March, or on the first business day each month, depending on the option you choose during your application.

Withdrawals

Provided you have sufficient cleared funds in your account, you can make withdrawals electronically and free of charge to the linked account, by logging into the online servicing site at www.postoffice.co.uk
